Assalamualaikum warahmatullahi wabarakatuh.

Warm greetings to all of us.

On behalf of the Faculty of Social and Political Sciences, Universitas Airlangga, we welcome the publication of this book. Through this book, we hope that all the contributions of the authors contained in it can provide new perspectives in the science of public administration and socio-politics in general. By responding to the event's theme, "Promoting Adaptive Systems to the Current Turbulence within Crisis Environments", various writings that carry the background of certain case studies with various methods, both field research and literature, are able to color the discourses that develop during the Covid-19 pandemic.

Along with this, we also highly appreciate the hard work of the authors as well as editors who has arranged this amazing book. Hopefully the pandemic will end quickly and everyone is in good health.
